

Rulantica in the winter season

The perfect start to the new year

Pure relaxation at the Europa-Park Hotels

November 27, 2025

The first three months of the new year at Germany's largest continuous hotel resort are all about well-being and enjoyment. From 19 January to 17 March 2026, Europa-Park's own 4* superior hotels will be treating their guests to a range of exclusive offers. The Rulantica water world will also be offering plenty of highlights to kick off the year. Combining relaxation, water-based fun and culinary delights of the highest order, guests will have the opportunity to recharge their batteries and get some much-needed energy.

Restful nights

Europa-Park's 4* superior themed hotels, Colosseo, Bell Rock, Krønasår and Santa Isabel, offer the perfect setting, whatever your requirements. Overlooking Rulantica, guests at the Krønasår Museum Hotel can enjoy a cosy "hygge" break in stylishly designed rooms and suites, culminating in the eleven exclusive Krønasår Boutique Suites with direct access to a 160 m² infinity pool. The Colosseo Hotel promises a Mediterranean feel, while the Bell Rock Hotel takes guests on a journey in the footsteps of the pilgrim fathers and explorers of America. Designed in the style of a Portuguese monastery, the Santa Isabel Hotel is open from Friday to Sunday between January and March, offering a peaceful retreat for anyone seeking inspiration and relaxation.

Wellness to the max

Covering 3,400 m², Europa-Park's hotels offer large wellness and spa areas with beautifully themed pool and sauna landscapes, where high-quality treatments ranging from hot stone massages and gentle exfoliation treatments to romantic pampering baths ensure deep relaxation and a holistic sense of well-being. In addition to the exclusive pool and sauna areas, there is also plenty of opportunity to work out at Europa-Park. The New England fitness and spa area at the Bell Rock Hotel is extremely popular. And at the Boston Red Sox fitness club, endurance athletes and fitness enthusiasts aged 16 and over are sure to find exactly what they are looking for. Hotel guests can also take advantage of the wide range of classes offered at the fitness club or use the fitness area at the Krønasår Hotel.

To escape the stress of everyday life for a while, guests can treat themselves to a Winter Cuddle Day in the wellness and spa areas at the Colosseo or Santa Isabel hotels. Day guests can feel as regal as Caesar and as beautiful as Cleopatra in ancient Rome with a lavish gourmet breakfast paired with for example a facial mask and a back massage.

Rulantica combines action and relaxation for everyone

The water world at Europa-Park offers water-based fun for all the family, whether it's freefalling, racing down slides with friends or riding a tube down the halfpipe. The Tønnevirvel water carousel is open all year round and offers visitors the chance to ride through crystal-clear water in one of nine round boats. They can also head straight through a passageway to the heated Svømmepøl outdoor pool, where delicious drinks await at the Svømme Bar.

From 19 January to 27 March 2026, Rulantica will be illuminated with a magical glow as part of the Nordic Festival of Lights. Especially in the evening hours, the water world will be transformed into a sparkling sea of lights. Enchanting illuminations, spectacular shows and thrilling entertainment by Europa-Park artists will amaze and inspire visitors. An absolute highlight awaits guests around the wave pool: for the first time, Rulantica is presenting an evening show with international artists and spectacular effects, providing unforgettable moments twice a day.

Pure relaxation and luxury in the water world

Spanning a total area of 1,000 m², a Nordic wellness oasis located above the Lumålunda restaurant boasts stunning vistas of the water world. With three saunas offering wonderful infusions, a steam bath, outdoor terraces and a wide selection of culinary delights, it has everything you could possibly desire. For a slightly different sauna experience, the KOTA Sauna Chalet offers guests the chance to enjoy a hearty sauna surrounded by rustic tables and seating, as well as a sauna heater, while sipping on a delicious beer. And exclusively for Hyggedal guests, the Hygge Sauna Bar awaits in the relaxation area.

A true highlight when it comes to comfort: Rulantica's exclusive day suites offer a very special place for those seeking peace and quiet. The Nørd, Øst, Sør and Vest Svits offer numerous amenities, including a sauna, cosy lounge area and private loggia. And for even more exclusivity, there are the Rulantica VIP Svits Sørvind and Vestavind.
